

T.E.A.TEK's Governance declares that it has implemented a Social Accountability Management System according to the international standard SA 8000 (Social Accountability), in order to strengthen its commitment in the social sphere and promote values of integrity and business ethics.

In line with the provisions of the T.E.A. Tek Group's Code of Ethics and Corporate Policy, this Policy confirms the company's commitment to achieving the highest ethical standards and sustainable business development, respecting and applying the principles of the SA 8000 standard in the corporate context, in compliance with the provisions of applicable laws and the main international conventions on human rights and workers' rights. In particular, in line with the SA 8000 standard, the T.E.A. Tek Group is committed to:

- Rejecting the employment of child labour
Absolute prohibition of hiring child labour and a commitment to counter such labour if it occurs at suppliers/subcontractors and sub-suppliers.
- Rejecting the use of forced and compulsory labour
Do not resort to or support the use of forced and compulsory labour.
- Protecting the health and safety of workers and their well-being
Ensuring a healthy and safe workplace for all employees by taking the necessary measures to protect the welfare of workers and prevent accidents and damage to their health during their employment in the company.
- Respect the right to freedom of association and collective bargaining
Fully respect the right of workers to join and form trade unions and promote collective bargaining.
- Respect the right to a decent wage and fair working hours
Ensure working hours and overtime in line with the contract, guaranteeing a decent and sufficient salary.
- Respect the principles of dignity, equality and non-discrimination
Prohibit any form of discrimination, including exclusion or preference based on race, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, political opinion, nationality or social class.
- Prohibiting unfair disciplinary practices
Prohibit the use of any form of physical, bodily and mental coercion, including verbal insults or any other offences against the dignity of persons.
- Developing an SA 8000 Management System
Implement, maintain and monitor a Social Accountability Management System, in order to further preside over social accountability issues, promoting continuous improvement processes fueled by risk assessment and mitigation.

The T.E.A. Tek Group is committed to ensuring that the principles of Social Responsibility are disseminated, understood and respected by workers, supply chain members and all stakeholders, promoting their involvement and hoping for constructive interaction.

The Group encourages employees to submit bona fide reports (anonymous and otherwise) concerning alleged or established violations of this Policy by contacting the Social Performance Team (Group Ethics Committee) directly using the email address: spt.teatek@gmail.com or by registered mail (including anonymously) at:
